ANOTHER ASTONISHING CURE! Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry,

DATTON, Feb. 11th, 1845 MR. J. W. WRITHORE: Dear Sir :- As you are the regular authorized agent in Dayton, for the sale of "Dr. Wistan's Balaam or Will Cherry," I take this method of making a statement of facts to you (which I hope may be published to the world) in reference to an almost minaculous cure, wrought in my case by means of the above invaluance Balaam.

Language fails to describe the salutary effects it produced, and the great benefit I derived from its use.

The citizens of Dayton and vicinity, well recollect that on the 8th of August last, I received serious injury from the explosion of a can-non. A portion of its contents entered my right side and breast; and in all probability, some fragments or splinters of the ramted passed through the "plura," and pierced the Lungs.

After the lapse of about six weeks, I was attacked with a distressing cough and violent pain in my right side. Some ten days after this, when in a parezy on of Coughing, suddenly an ulcer broke, and a large quantity of very offensive matter, mixed with blood, was discharged; most of which found passage through the opening of the wound. From this opening there frequently passed a quantity of air, supposed to issue from the lungs. During all this time my sufferings were almost My physicians, meanwhile, paid the strictest attention to me, and could be done by medical aid, if the constitution itself was not sufficient to throw off the disease.

My friends now despaired of my recovery, and I had no earthly ground of hope to survive many days. Fortunately at this juncture I saw one of Dr. Wistan's Pamenatus, entitled "Family Medical Greide," or "Treatise on Communition of the Lungs." As I had often heard of dying men "catching at straws," I felt like doing so myself. By the consent of my physicians, I sent to you for a bottle of the medicine described, viz: "Wistan's Balsam or Will Cherry," which relieved me almost immediately. After I had used some five or six bottieved me almost immediately. After I had used some five or six bot-ties, I so far recovered as to be up and about. My cough ceased, and my lungs were restored to a healthy state—all from the healing and balmy nce, and powerful medicinal virtues of Wistan's Balsam. Were it not for the external injury I received in the shoulder and arm by the explosion, I feel confident that I might have been working at my trade (which is blacksmithing,) but this has prevented.

By exposure, I have since taken several severe colds; and my only rongedy has been "THE BALSAM." And I now most cordially recommend the genuine Wister's Balance to all who are afflicted with Colds, Course, or Luna Complete. I consider it an invaluable medicine—a real blessing to the world. Any person desiring further information may call on me at any time. Yours truly, CHRISTOPHER R. SMITH

Sold in New York at 179 Greenwich Street, also by Russian & and it is with great satisfaction that I am enabled to state that it has perfectly restored my hearing, and I will be happy to see any person who wishes for information in relation to my case, at my place in West Troy.

WILLARD JENKS.

The editor of the Philadelphia Spirit of the Times, J. Du Selle, Esq. has recently been cured of deafness by the use of this Oil, and has given his testimony as follows, in the Times of Sept. 21, 1844.

"Who wants to Hear?—The best article extant for the cure of chronic deafness, arising from a recent cold, is "Scarpa's Acoustic Oil." We speak from experience."

DEAFNESS CUREO!-Read the following editorial from the Saturday Exening Post: CUBE YOR DEAFNESS .- We have heard much lately of the efficacy of Scarpa's Oil, in cases of Dealmess, and astonishing cures by this sim-ple remedy have been unquestionably performed. As the editor of a our duty to call public attention to this specific. Those afflicted with this maindy will find Scarpa's Oil for Deafness well worthy a trial.

None genuine unless with the words "SCARPA'S OIL FOR DEAFNESS" blown in each bettle, and with the written signature of B. Bell on the wrapper.

Prepared by B. Bell, and sold wholesale and retail by B. B. GUMPERT, No. 120, North Second Street, Philadelphia. Observe that the subscribers are the only agents in this State for the sale of the Acoustic Oil,—therefore those suffering from dealness, can-not be assured of its genuineness unless it is purchased directly from us. Banner. "Whenever the unfortunate consult Dr. Cooke, of Albany, they are very politely conducted to a spacious private office, (literally crowded with credentials of the highest order, in large glass frames, subject to the inspection of his patients—very few men have the honor to hold such documents) and, as an equivalent for his fee, receive a corresponding prescription. The near attire of this celebrated man, "ever at hore," enrobed in a rich black sur-plice, after the Episcopal order,—a solid cross in his basom, with genteel gold buckles in his shoes—is of itself an inducement to visit this profound Physician, this friend to humanity and of God."-
